

ASIABEST GROUP INTERNATIONAL INC.
20th Flr. The Peak Tower, 107 L.P. Leviste St.,
Legaspi Village, Makati City

20 June 2013

The Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc.
Tower One, Ayala Avenue
Makati City

Attention : Ms. Janet A. Encarnacion
Head, Disclosure Department

Gentlemen:

In compliance with the Revised Disclosure Rules of the Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc., (the Exchange), Asiabest Group International Inc. (the Company) hereby informs the public of the actions taken up during the special meeting of the Board of Directors held today, 20 June 2013.

Please see attached.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Venus L. Gregorio
Corporate Secretary
Corporate Information Officer

In compliance with the continuing disclosure requirements of the Philippine Stock Exchange, we hereby inform the public of that during the board meeting held today, 20 June 2013, the following matters were taken up:

1. Approval of the Manual of Corporate Governance, a copy of which is hereto attached.
2. Creation of the following committees and appointment of the following directors to such committees:

Executive Committee
Antonio Victoriano F. Gregorio III	Chairman
Jose M. Crisostomo	Member
Jose Francisco E. Miranda	Member
Helen G. Tiu	Member

Governance Committee
Helen G. Tiu	Chairman
Ramon Miguel V. Osmena	Member
Jose M. Crisostomo	Member

Risk Management Committee
Helen G. Tiu	Chairman
Manuel Acenas	Member
Delfin S. Castro, Jr.	Member

3. Calling of the Annual Stockholders' Meeting to be held sometime in September specific date and in a venue to be determined by the President.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Regulation Code, the issuer has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.

ASIABEST GROUP INTERNATIONAL INC.

Issuer

20 June 2013

Date

BY:

VENUS L. GREGORIO
 Corporate Secretary
 Corporate Information Officer

ANTONIO V. GREGORIO III
 Chairman & President

MANUAL OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

ASIABEST GROUP INTERNATIONAL, INC.

JUNE 2013

1. MISSION AND VISION

Asiabest Group International Inc. (the Company) shall strive to become one of the leaders in its industry through the development and implementation of strategic plans, operating goals and objectives across its entire organization of competent directors, management and personnel.

2. INTRODUCTION

Asiabest Group International Inc. was registered as an investment holdings corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 23, 1970 and was listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange (then Makati Stock Exchange) on July 10, 1979. After about a decade of dormancy, ABG has been revived for operations in 2011 with the entry of new management. In line with its mission and vision, the Company also strives to implement a corporate governance framework consisting of internationally set standards for the protection of stakeholders and shareholders.

3. GOVERNANCE FRAMEWORK

This document, otherwise known as Asiabest Group International Inc. Manual of Corporate Governance (MCG), sets out the key principles, guidelines, mandates, roles, obligations and standards of best practices entailed of the ABG's Board of Directors, Committees, and Management. all in the context of the ensuring that the stewardship responsibilities of ABG to its shareholders are performed within or subject to specific standards of care and competence.

These guidelines will be an evolving set of corporate governance principles, subject to modification and updating as circumstances warrant. The Corporate Governance Committee will be responsible for ensuring compliance with this MGC and shall conduct periodic reviews after the close of audit once every year.

Overall, the guiding principles in the implementation, review and amendment of the MGC shall be:

- a. Set out the roles and responsibilities of key persons such as Directors, Officers and Management of the Company following international standards;
- b. Recognize the importance of regular reviews of ethics and performance
- c. Explore avenues for improvement through the conduct of continuing education on relevant matters;
- d. Ensure accountability; and
- e. Instil values and practice efficiency and integrity among key persons

The essence of corporate governance is transparency. The more transparent the internal workings of the corporation are, the more difficult it will be for Management and dominant stockholders to mismanage the corporation or misappropriate its assets.

4. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

It is the Board of Directors' (Board) responsibility to foster the long-term success of the Corporation, and to sustain its competitiveness and profitability in a manner consistent with corporate objectives and the best interests of shareholders. The Board's role is one of stewardship. It is mandated to take care of the interests of the shareholders and protect their investments through the implementation of sound corporate policies and plans while maintaining its independent assessment on Management's performance.

4.1 Board Composition

The Board shall be composed of such number of directors as provided under the Company's By-laws. The Corporation shall have at least two (2) independent directors or such a number of independent directors that constitutes twenty percent (20%) of the members of the Board, whichever is lesser, but in no case less than two (2).

The membership of the Board may be a combination of executive and non-executive directors (which include independent directors) in order that no director or small group of directors can dominate the decision-making process.

The non-executive directors should possess such qualifications and stature that would enable them to effectively participate in the deliberations of the Board.

4.2 Specific Duties and Functions of the Board:

To ensure a high standard of best practice for the Company and its stakeholders, the Board shall conduct itself with honesty and integrity in the performance of the following duties and functions:

- a. Install and implement a process for the selection of directors to ensure a mix of competent directors who can add value and contribute independent judgment to the formulation of sound corporate strategies and policies;
- b. Appoint competent, professional, and highly motivated management officers, and adopt an effective succession planning program for Management;
- c. Ensure that the Corporation complies with all relevant laws, regulations and codes of best business practices;
- d. Identify the Corporation's major and other stakeholders and formulate a clear policy on communicating or relating with them through an effective investor relations program that will keep them informed of important developments in the Corporation;

-
- e. Adopt a system of internal checks and balances. A regular review of the effectiveness of such system shall be conducted to ensure the integrity of the decision-making and reporting processes at all times. There shall be a continuing review of the Corporation's internal control system in order to maintain its adequacy and effectiveness;
 - f. Identify risk areas and key performance indicators and monitor these factors with due diligence to enable the Corporation to anticipate and prepare for possible threats to its operational and financial viability;
 - g. Properly discharge Board functions by meeting regularly. Independent views during Board meetings shall be given due consideration and all such meetings shall be duly minuted;
 - h. Keep Board authority within the powers of the Corporation as prescribed in the Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws and in existing laws, rules and regulations.
 - i. Do sound strategic policies and guidelines to the Corporation on major capital expenses. Establish programs that can sustain long-term viability and strength. Periodically evaluate and monitor the implementation of such policies and strategies, including the business plans, operating budgets and Management's overall performance.
 - j. Identify the sectors in the community in which the Corporation operates or are directly affected by its operations, and formulate a clear policy of accurate, timely, and effective communication with them.
 - k. Formulate and implement policies and procedures that would ensure the integrity and transparency of related party transactions between and among the Corporation, joint ventures, subsidiaries, associates, affiliates, major shareholders, officers and directors, including their spouses, children and dependent siblings and parents, and of interlocking director relationships by members of the Board;
 - l. Constitute a Governance Committee and such other committees it deems necessary to assist the Board in the performance of its duties and responsibilities;
 - m. Establish and maintain an alternative dispute resolution system in the Corporation that can amicably settle conflicts or differences between the Corporation and its shareholders, and the Corporation and third parties, including the regulatory authorities;
 - n. Appoint a Compliance Officer who shall have the rank of at least Vice President. In the absence of such appointment, the Corporate Secretary, preferably a lawyer, shall act as Compliance Officer.

4.3 Duties and Responsibilities of a Director

A director's office is one of trust and confidence. He/ she shall act in a manner characterized by transparency, accountability, and fairness. He/ she should exercise leadership, prudence, and integrity in directing the Corporation towards sustained progress.

A director shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- a. To conduct fair business transactions with the Corporation and to ensure that personal interest does not bias Board decisions nor conflict with the interests of the Corporation;
- b. To devote time and attention necessary to properly discharge his/ her duties and responsibilities;
- c. To act judiciously;
- d. To exercise independent judgment;
- e. To have a working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements affecting the Corporation, including the contents of its Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws, the rules, regulation and requirements of the SEC, and where applicable, the requirements of other regulatory agencies;
- f. To observe confidentiality, and;
- g. To ensure the continuing soundness, effectiveness, and adequacy of the Corporation's control environment.

4.4 Qualifications

The directors shall possess such qualifications for membership in the Board as prescribed by the Corporation Code, Securities Regulation Code and other relevant laws, rules and regulations. The non-executive directors shall possess such qualifications and stature that would enable them to effectively participate in the deliberations of the Board. Among others, the following qualifications shall be considered in a director's nomination and election to the Board:

- a. College education or equivalent academic degree;
- b. Practical understanding of the business of the corporation;
- c. Membership in good standing in relevant industry, business or professional organizations; and
- d. Vast and successful business experience.

4.5 Disqualifications

The following shall be grounds for the permanent disqualification of a director:

- a. Any person convicted by final judgment or order by a competent judicial or administrative body of any crime that (a) involves the purchase or sale of securities as defined in the Securities Regulation Code; (b) arises out of the person's conduct as an underwriter, broker, dealer, investment adviser, principal distributor, mutual fund dealer, futures commission merchant, commodity trading advisor, or floor broker; or (c) arises out of his/ her fiduciary relationship with a bank, quasi bank, trust company, investment house or as an affiliated person or any of them;
- b. Any person who, by reason of misconduct, after hearing, is permanently enjoined by final judgment or order of the SEC or any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction from: (a) acting as underwriter, broker, dealer, investment adviser, principal, distributor, mutual fund dealer, futures commission merchant, commodity trading advisor, or floor broker, (b) acting as director or officer of a bank, quasi-bank, trust company, investment house or investment company; (c) engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in any of the capacities mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) above, or wilfully violating the laws that govern securities and banking activities;
- c. If such person is currently the subject of an order of the SEC or any court or administrative body denying, revoking or suspending any registration, license or permit issued to him under the Corporation Code, Securities Regulation Code or any other law administered by the SEC or Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP), or under any rule or regulation issued by SEC or BSP, or has otherwise restrained to engage in any activity involving securities and banking; or such person is currently the subject of an effective order of a self-regulatory organization suspending or expelling him from membership, participation or association with a member or participant of the organization;
- d. Any person judicially convicted by final judgment of an offense involving moral turpitude, fraud, embezzlement, theft, estafa, counterfeiting, misappropriation, forgery, bribery, false affirmation, perjury or other fraudulent acts;
- e. Any person finally found by the SEC or a court or other administrative body to have wilfully violated, or wilfully aided, abetted, counselled, induced or procured the violation of any provision of the Securities Regulation Code, the Corporation Code, or any other law administered by the SEC or BSP, or any rule, regulation or order of the SEC or BSP;
- f. Any person judicially declared to be insolvent;
- g. Any person earlier elected as independent director who becomes an officer, employee, or consultant of the same Corporation;

-
- h. Any person finally found guilty by a foreign court or equivalent financial regulatory authority of acts, violations or misconduct similar to any of the acts, violations or misconduct listed in the foregoing paragraphs; and
 - i. Conviction by final judgment of an offense punishable by imprisonment for a period exceeding six (6) years, or a violation of the Corporation Code, committed within five (5) years prior to the date of his/ her election or appointment.

4.6 Temporary Disqualifications

The following shall be grounds for the temporary disqualification of a director:

- a. Refusal to fully disclose the extent of his/ her business interest as required under the Securities Regulation Code and its Implementing Rules and Regulations. This disqualification shall be in effect as long as his/ her refusal persists;
- b. Absence or non-participation for whatever reason/s for more than fifty (50%) percent of all meetings, both regular and special, of the Board of Directors during his/ her incumbency, or any twelve (12) month period during said incumbency, unless the absence is due to illness, death in the immediate family or serious accident. This disqualification applies for the purposes of the succeeding election;
- c. Dismissal/ termination from directorship in another listed corporation for valid cause. This disqualification shall be in effect until he/ she cleared himself of any involvement in the alleged irregularity;
- d. Being under preventive suspension by the Corporation;
- e. Conviction that has not yet become final referred to in the grounds for the disqualification of directors; and
- f. If the beneficial equity ownership of an independent director in the Corporation or its subsidiaries or affiliates exceeds two percent (2%) of its subscribed capital stock. The disqualification shall be lifted if the limit is later complied with.

A temporarily disqualified director shall, within sixty (6) business days from such disqualification, take appropriate action to remedy or correct the disqualification. If he/ she fails to do so for unjustified reasons, the disqualification shall become permanent.

4.7 Membership Criteria

The members of the Board shall be elected from a list of nominees who have been identified, screened and recommended for election by the Nominations Committee. Any shareholder of record may nominate a candidate for directorship in the annual shareholders' meeting of the Company. Nominees shall be selected on the basis of the set of criteria and other relevant factors as laid down in this MGC.

It is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders to obtain highly qualified individuals to serve on the Board. These are only threshold criteria, however, and the Nomination Committee will also consider the contributions that a candidate can be expected to make to the collective functioning of the Board based upon the totality of the candidate's credentials, experience and expertise, the composition of the Board at the time, and other relevant circumstances. Among others, the nominee must:

- a. Have high personal and professional integrity, and shall have demonstrated, through specific experience or otherwise, relevant knowledge, skills, expertise, ability to make independent analytical inquiries, understanding of our business environment, and willingness to devote adequate time and effort to Board responsibilities;
- b. Committed to promoting and enhancing the long term value of the Company for its shareholders;
- c. Should not have any interests that would materially impair his or her ability to (a) exercise independent judgment, or (b) otherwise discharge the fiduciary duties owed as a director to the Company and its shareholders;
- d. Be able to represent fairly and equally all shareholders of the Company without favoring or advancing any particular shareholder or other constituency of the Company;
- e. Have sound judgment, derived from management or policy-making experience (which may be as an advisor or consultant), that demonstrates an ability to function effectively in an oversight role;
- f. Conduct fair business transactions with the corporation, and ensure that his personal interest does not conflict with the interests of the corporation;
- g. Should not use his position to profit or gain some benefit or advantage for himself and/or his related interests. He should avoid situations that may compromise his impartiality. If an actual or potential conflict of interest may arise on the part of a director, he should fully and immediately disclose it and should not participate in the decision-making process. A director who has a continuing material conflict of interest should seriously consider resigning from his position;
- h. Devote the time and attention necessary to properly and effectively perform his duties and responsibilities;
- i. Devote sufficient time to familiarize himself with the corporation's business. He should be constantly aware of and knowledgeable with the corporation's operations to enable him to meaningfully contribute to the Board's work. He should attend and actively participate in Board and committee meetings, review meeting materials and, if called for, ask questions or seek explanation;
- j. Have a working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements that affect the corporation, including its articles of incorporation and by-laws, the rules and regulations of the Commission and, where applicable, the requirements of relevant regulatory agencies; and

-
- k. Be abreast with industry developments and business trends in order to promote the corporation's competitiveness.

In addition to the minimum qualifications for each nominee described above, at least one Non-Executive Director should have experience in the sector or industry in which the Company belongs to.

The Nomination Committee is responsible for reviewing with the Board, on a periodic basis, the appropriate skills and characteristics required of the Directors in the context of the current needs of the Company. In determining whether a Director should stand for re-election, appropriate consideration shall be given to the Director's attendance at Board meetings and his or her performance as a Director.

4.8 The Chairman of the Board

The roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) should, as much as practicable, be separate to foster an appropriate balance of power, increased accountability and better capacity for independent decision-making by the Board. A clear delineation of functions should be made between the Chairman and CEO upon their election.

If the positions of Chairman and CEO are unified, the proper checks and balances should be laid down to ensure that the Board gets the benefit of independent views and perspectives.

The Board selects its Chairman in the manner that it determines to be in the best interest of the Company's shareholders. The Chairman shall facilitate and ensure the effective performance of the Board by leading it towards attaining its mission and realizing its vision.

The Chairman's role is very vital in ensuring that decision-making is done on the Board level through the use of processes and controls laid down in this MGC. The Chairman must foster a constructive board culture to ensure the effective and productive performance of the Board's oversight functions over management. The Chairman should have excellent communication and interpersonal skills, display good organizational abilities, ability to manage situations and must have have tact and diplomacy. These qualities are vital in so that the Chairman of the Board may perform his functions which shall, among others, include the following:

- a. Effectively preside over Board meetings s that the Board works as a cohesive team;
- b. Ensure that the members of the Board are timely, properly and accurately informed of developments in the Company;
- c. Promote independence in the decision-making of the members of the Board;
- d. Ensure that productive output and time management are recognized in Board meetings;
- e. Maintain a balance among the varying views of the members of the Board

-
- f. Defer matters that should properly be taken up and decided by management or the various committees;
 - g. Maintain appropriate meeting decorum;
 - h. Ensure effective communication with shareholders;
 - i. Ensure constructive relations between the Board and management; and
 - j. Promote high standards of corporate governance.

4.9 Independent Directors

There shall be at least two (2) independent directors or such a number of independent directors that constitutes twenty percent (20%) of the members of the Board, whichever is lesser, but in no case less than two (2). The Independent Directors shall have the qualifications and none of the disqualifications of an Independent Director. Among others, an Independent Director must have the qualifications as prescribed by the Securities Regulation Code, its implementing rules and regulations, other relevant laws, rules and regulations in addition to the qualifications mentioned in the Board Membership Criteria. He should also be a person who, apart from his/ her fees and shareholdings, is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his/ her exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his/ her responsibilities as a director of the corporation and includes, among others, any person who:

- a. Is not a director or officer of the Corporation or of its related companies or any of its substantial shareholders except when an independent director of any of the foregoing;
- b. Does not own more than two percent (2%) of the shares of the Corporation and/ or its related companies or any of its substantial shareholders;
- c. Is not related to any director, officer or substantial shareholder of the Corporation, any of its related companies or any of its substantial shareholders. For this purpose, relatives include spouse, parent, child, brother, sister, and the spouse of such child, brother or sister;
- d. Is not acting as a nominee or representative of any director of substantial shareholder of the Corporation, and/ or any of its related companies and/ or any of its substantial shareholders, pursuant to a Deed of Trust or under any contract or arrangement;
- e. Has not been employed in any executive capacity by the Corporation, any of its related companies and/ or by any of its substantial shareholders within the last two (2) years;
- f. Is not retained, either personally or through his/ her firm or any similar entity, as professional adviser, by the Corporation, any of its related companies and/ or any of its substantial shareholders, within the last two (2) years; or
- g. Has not engaged and does not engage in any transaction with the Corporation and/ or with any of its related companies and/ or with any of its substantial shareholders, whether by himself and/ or with other persons and/ or through a firm of which he/ she is a partner and/ or a company of which he/ she is a director or substantial shareholder, other than transactions which are conducted at arms length and are immaterial.

Further, an Independent Director shall have the following qualifications:

- a. He shall have at least one (1) share of stock of the Corporation;
- b. He shall be at least a college graduate or he shall have been engaged or exposed to the business of the Corporation for at least five (5) years;
- c. He shall possess integrity/ probity; and
- d. He shall be assiduous.

In addition to the grounds for temporary or permanent disqualification of a director, an independent director shall likewise be disqualified during his tenure under the following instances or causes:

- a. He becomes an officer or employee of the Corporation;
- b. His beneficial security ownership exceeds two percent (2%) of the outstanding capital stock of the Corporation;
- c. Fails, without any justifiable cause, to attend at least fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Board meetings during his incumbency;

An independent director shall submit to the Corporate Secretary a letter of confirmation stating that he holds no interests affiliated with the Corporation, management or controlling shareholder at the time of his election or appointment and/ or re-election as a director.

To ensure that the objectivity and impartiality of an independent director is not compromised, an independent director shall be ineligible for nomination and re-election, after serving the Company for five (5) consecutive years. However, after a "cooling off" period of two (2) years such person should not engage in any activity that, under the Securities Regulation Code and other relevant rules, disqualifies him from being elected as an independent director. Re-election of a person who has served as an independent director for five years is allowed after the mandatory two-year cooling-off period. Upon reelection, such person may serve as an independent director for another four consecutive years. After serving for ten (10) years, a person is perpetually barred from serving as an independent director, without prejudice to his being elected as such in other companies outside the Company.

4.10 Nomination and Election Procedures

The following rules shall apply with respect to the nomination and election of all members of the Corporation's Board of Directors:

- a. All nominations for directors to be elected by the stockholders of the Corporation shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation at the principal office of the Corporation not earlier than forty (40) days nor later than twenty (20) days prior to the date of the regular or special meeting of stockholders for the election of directors. Nominations which are not submitted within such nomination period shall not be valid. Only stockholders of record entitled to notice of and vote at the regular or special meeting of the stockholders for the election of the directors shall be qualified to be nominated and elected a director of the Corporation;

-
- b. Any registered stockholder may be nominated and elected to the Board of Directors. The Nomination Committee, by majority vote, shall pass upon the qualification of the nominee to the Board. It may also, in the exercise of its discretion and by majority vote of its members, disqualify a nominated shareholder who, in the Nomination Committee's judgment, represents an interest adverse to or in conflict with those of the Corporation;
 - c. Approval for nomination of directors shall be conducted by the Nomination Committee prior to the annual shareholders' meeting. All nomination shall be signed by the nominating shareholders together with the acceptance and conformity of the would be nominees and shall be submitted to the Nomination Committee and the Corporate Secretary in accordance with the period mandated by the By-laws;
 - d. The Nomination Committee shall pre-screen the qualifications and prepare a Final List of all Candidates for directors;
 - e. The Final List of Candidates to be submitted to the Board of Directors shall contain all information regarding the background and experience of the nominees required to be ascertained and made known under the Securities Regulation Code and relevant rules and regulations of the SEC. Said Final List of Candidates shall be disclosed in the reports required by law, rules and regulations to be submitted to the SEC and to all shareholders;
 - f. It shall be the responsibility of the Chairman of the shareholders' meeting to inform all shareholders in attendance of the mandatory qualifications and procedures for nominating and electing directors;
 - g. Specific slots for independent directors shall not be filled up by unqualified nominees;

4.11 Orientation of New Members

The Company shall conduct an orientation for newly elected members of the Board. This orientation shall familiarize each new Director with, among other things, the Company's business, strategic plans, significant financial, accounting and risk management issues, compliance programs, conflicts policies, code of business conduct, corporate governance and principal officers. Such new Director shall, as appropriate, attend outside director education courses sponsored by recognized organizations. It shall also include meetings with and presentations by key management and visits to Company facilities.

4.12 Board Education

The Board recognizes the importance of continuing education of its members. Each Director is expected to participate, as appropriate, in continuing education in order to maintain the necessary level of expertise to perform his or her responsibilities as a Director. The Board acknowledges that Director continuing education may be provided in a variety of different forms, including external or internal education programs, presentations or briefings on particular topics, educational materials, meetings with key management and visits to Company facilities. The Company, under the direction of the Nomination Committee, will assist the Board in pursuing continuing education programs for its Directors.

4.13 Board Meetings

4.13.1 General

- i. The members of the Board should attend regular and special meetings in person or through teleconferencing conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC;
- ii. Independent directors should always attend Board meetings, unless otherwise provided in the By-Laws, their absence shall not affect the quorum requirement. However, the Board may, to promote transparency, require the presence of at least one independent director in all its meetings;

4.13.2 Agenda Items

Agenda Items are designated by the Chairman in consultation with the the CEO (if not also the Chairman), management, or others as determined by the Chairman. Any Director may suggest agenda items and may raise at meetings other matters they consider worthy of discussion.

4.13.3 Distribution of Meeting Materials and Other Relevant Information

The Corporate Secretary shall be responsible for the timely and proper distribution of notices, agenda and other relevant meeting materials for discussion during the pertinent board meeting through the recognized modes of transmission of information ie., personal delivery, fax, mail of courier. Receipt should be ensured to allow for ample review by the members of the Board to enable them to fully comprehend the matters to be discussed during the relevant meeting.

To prepare for meetings, Directors shall review all materials sent in advance. The Board believes that maintaining confidentiality of information and Board deliberations is critical. The proceedings and deliberations of the Board and all Board Committees shall, accordingly, be confidential. Each Director shall continue to maintain the confidentiality of information received in connection with his or her service as a Director. Information learned during the course of service on the Board is to be used solely in furtherance of the Company's business.

4.14 Stockholders' Rights and Protection of Minority Stockholders' Interests

The Board shall respect the rights of the stockholders as provided for in the Corporation Code, namely:

- a. Right to vote on all matters that require their consent or approval;
- b. Pre-emptive right to all stock issuances of the corporation; (iii) Right to inspect corporate books and records;
- c. Right to information;
- d. Right to dividends; and

e. Appraisal right.

The Board should be transparent and fair in the conduct of the annual and special stockholders' meetings of the corporation. The stockholders should be encouraged to personally attend such meetings. If they cannot attend, they should be apprised ahead of time of their right to appoint a proxy. Subject to the requirements of the by-laws, the exercise of that right shall not be unduly restricted and any doubt about the validity of a proxy should be resolved in the stockholder's favor.

It is the duty of the Board to promote the rights of the stockholders, remove impediments to the exercise of those rights and provide an adequate avenue for them to seek timely redress for breach of their rights.

The Board should take the appropriate steps to remove excessive or unnecessary costs and other administrative impediments to the stockholders' meaningful participation in meetings, whether in person or by proxy. Accurate and timely information should be made available to the stockholders to enable them to make a sound judgment on all matters brought to their attention for consideration or approval.

Although all stockholders should be treated equally or without discrimination, the Board should give minority stockholders the right to propose the holding of meetings and the items for discussion in the agenda that relate directly to the business of the corporation.

4.15 Access to Management and Independent Advisors

Reliance on information volunteered by Management would not be sufficient in all circumstances and further inquiries may have to be made by members of the Board to enable them to properly perform their duties and responsibilities. Hence, the Company expects and encourages its Directors to have regular contact with the Company's senior management. Accordingly, the Directors shall have full access to the senior management of the Company. At the invitation of the Board, members of senior management recommended by the CEO shall attend Board meetings or portions thereof for the purpose of participating in discussions. Generally, presentations of matters to be considered by the Board are made by the executive responsible for that area of the Company's operations.

The Board, any Board Committee or group of Independent Directors, as appropriate, and after discussion with the Chairman, and at the expense of the Company, may retain the services of legal counsel, accountants, auditors or any other independent professional advisors to assist on matters involving their responsibilities as Board or Board Committee members and the Chairman and CEO shall be promptly advised of any such engagement unless the Chairman, as applicable, believes that special circumstances exist where it would not be appropriate to provide such advice. The Company shall have in place procedures to assure that funding is made available to meet the fees and expenses of any such person or firm so retained.

Management shall be responsible for assuring that, as a general rule, information and data that are important to the Board's understanding of the Company's business and to all matters expected to be considered and acted upon by the Board be distributed in writing to the Board sufficiently in advance of each Board meeting and each action to be taken by written consent to provide the Directors a reasonable time to review and evaluate such information and data. Management shall make every attempt to see that this material is as concise as possible while still providing the desired information. In the event of a pressing need for the Board to meet on short notice or if such materials would otherwise contain highly confidential or sensitive information, it is recognized that written materials may not be available in advance.

4.16 Performance Assessment

The Governance Committee, working with the Chairman shall develop and oversee a performance assessment of the effectiveness of the Board. This assessment shall focus on the performance of the Board as a whole, concentrating on areas where performance might be improved. The Board shall administer an annual self-evaluation and evaluation of its Committees to determine the same. The Chairman shall present the results of such annual assessment to the Board for its review and discussion. (Please see more discussions on Section 5.2.)

4.17 Compensation and Remuneration

Directors shall be entitled to receive appropriate compensation for their services as a Director, as may be determined from time to time by the Compensation or Remuneration Committee, as well as reimbursement of reasonable travel and related expenses incurred in connection with their service as Director. The Company believes that compensation for Independent Directors should be competitive and should encourage increased ownership of the Company's stock through payment of a portion of the Board compensation in stock, deferred compensation stock equivalents or options to purchase the Company's stock.

While the Board does not believe it is appropriate to specify a particular level of equity ownership for individual Directors, each Director shall over time have an equity interest in the Company after initial election to the Board through any stock-based compensation provided and shall be encouraged to retain such equity interest while serving on the Board.

The Board shall establish specific approval limits in terms of peso amounts and/or other specified terms and conditions with respect to management's authority to approve certain expenditures or transactions depending on the nature and size of the proposed expenditure or transaction. These limits shall permit some flexibility within approved budgets but otherwise must not be exceeded without prior Board approval or ratification.

5. STANDING COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors shall have the following standing committees:

- a. Executive Committee
- b. Audit Committee
- c. Governance Committee

-
- d. Remuneration Committee
 - e. Nomination Committee
 - f. Risk Management Committee (See discussions under Section 9).

The Board shall appoint the Chairpersons and members of each standing committee on an annual basis. Any member shall cease to be a member of the standing committee the moment he ceases to be a member of the Board. Any vacancies may be filled up by appointment into the position by a vote of the majority of the Board.

The Chair of each standing committee shall be the head with the power to call for meetings, preside over meetings, and reporting to the Board. Each committee will be charged with reviewing the adequacy of its mandate annual and recommend procedures, changes, or amendments to its rules as may be found appropriate.

Standing committees shall have quarterly meetings that may be called close to the quarterly financial reporting period of the Company. They may meet as often as they deem appropriate to discharge their responsibilities at the offices of the Company or anywhere as may be deemed fit within the Philippines. The Corporate Secretary shall act as the secretariat of the standing committees in charge of keeping records of the committees and minutes of their meetings.

5.1 The Executive Committee

An Executive Committee comprising of four (4) members of the Board and the President of the Company, who shall be the Chairman, shall be created by the Board, to hold office for one (1) year and/ or until their respective successors shall be designated. During the intervals between the meetings of the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee shall exercise all the powers of the Board of Directors in the Management and direction of the affairs of the Company, in all matters in which specific directions shall not have been given by the Board of Directors.

All actions by the Executive Committee shall be reported to the Board of Directors at its meeting next succeeding such action and shall be subject to revision or alteration by the Board, provided that no rights of third parties shall be affected by any such revision or alteration. The proceedings of the Executive Committee shall be kept in a book provided for the purpose. Vacancies in the Executive Committee shall be filled by the Board of Directors. A majority of the committee members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum. It shall adopt its own rules of procedure.

5.2 The Governance Committee

The Governance Committee shall consist of three members of the Board, two of whom, including the Chairman, shall be Independent Directors. The Governance Committee shall assist the Board with respect to governance matters most especially in the implementation of practices and standards to be observed in an effective stewardship environment.

The Governance Committee should be a cohesive and independent team of planners and program implementers that can play a critical role in fostering a healthier and better culture among the Board members and Management.

The Governance Committee shall be in charge of:

- a. Undertaking and approving an annual performance assessment of the Board, its Committees and the Individual Directors. The Performance Assessment Guidelines and scorecard shall be prepared in accordance with the mandates of this MGC;
- b. Preparation and approval of an Annual Program of Governance including the planning of an annual continuing education program for the Board and Management;
- c. Approval of policies, programs and processes to be contained in a manual and directors' handbook insofar as the same will supplement this MGC;
- d. Recommending governance practices and policies to the Company's subsidiaries and investment entities;
- e. Assessing the competency requirements and compliance levels of the members of the Board insofar as continuing Board education is concerned;
- f. Reviewing policies of the Board and the Standing Committees insofar as they relate to governance matters;
- g. Reviewing governance standards published by other Philippine listed companies with a view of assessing their relevance and developing a more current set of standards for the Company;

5.3 The Nomination Committee

A Nomination Committee shall be organized consisting of at least three (3) members, one of whom shall be an independent director. The Nomination Committee shall have the following functions:

- a. formulate screening policies to enable the Committee to effectively review and evaluate the qualification of the nominees nominated to the board and other appointments which require Board approval
- h. assess the effectiveness of the Board processes and procedures in the election and replacement of directors; and
- i. conduct nominations for independent directors prior to the stockholders' meeting in accordance with the procedure set forth in Rule 38 of the Amended Implementing Rules and Regulations of the Securities Regulation Code, as the same may be amended from time to time.

The decision of the Nomination Committee as to nominees to the Board of Directors, once confirmed by the Board of Directors, shall be final and binding upon the shareholders.

The Nomination Committee shall promulgate the guidelines or criteria to govern the conduct of nominations; provided, that any such promulgated guidelines or criteria governing the conduct of nomination of Independent Directors shall be properly disclosed in the Corporation's information or proxy statement or such other reports required by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Nomination Committee shall pre-screen the qualifications and prepare a final list of all candidates and put in place screening policies and parameters to enable it to effectively review the qualifications of the nominees.

After the nomination, the Nomination Committee shall prepare a Final List of Candidates which shall contain all the information about all the nominees, including, but not limited to, the following information: (i) Name, age and citizenship; (ii) List of positions and offices that each such nominee held, or will hold, if known, with the Corporation; (iii) Business experience during the past five (5) years; (iv) Directorship held in the other companies; (v) Involvement in legal proceedings; and (vi) Security ownership.

The Final List shall be made available to the Securities and Exchange Commission and to all stockholders through the filing and distribution of the Information Statement or in such other reports required by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The name of the person or group of persons who recommended the nomination of the Directors shall be identified in such report including any relationship with the nominee.

The Chairman of the stockholder' meeting has the responsibility to inform all stockholders in attendance of the mandatory requirement of electing Independent Directors and to ensure that the Independent Directors are elected during the stockholders' meeting.

5.4 The Audit Committee

An Audit Committee shall be constituted from three (3) members of the Board of Directors. The members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed by at least a majority vote of the Board of Directors for a term co-terminus with the term of the members of the Board of Directors. The Audit committee shall assist the Board in performing an oversight responsibility for the financial reporting process, supervise the managements activities, monitor and evaluate the adequacy and effectiveness of the corporations internal control system, coordinate, monitor and facilitate compliance with laws rules and regulations and review the reports and financial statements before their submission to the Board.

The members of the Audit Committee shall preferably have accounting and finance background, one of whom shall be an Independent Director and another should have related audit experience. The Chairman of the Audit Committee should be an Independent Director. He should be responsible for inculcating in the minds of the members of the Board the importance of the management responsibilities in maintaining a sound system of internal control and the Board's oversight responsibility.

The Audit Committee shall have the following specific functions:

- a. Provide oversight over the senior management's activities in managing credit, market liquidity, operational, legal and other risks of the Corporation. The function shall include receiving from senior management periodic information on risk exposures and risk management activities.

-
- b. Provide oversight of the Corporation's internal and external auditors;
 - c. Review and approve audit scope and frequency, and the annual internal audit plan;
 - d. Discuss with the external auditor before the audit commences the nature and scope of the audit, and ensure coordination where more than one audit firm is involved;
 - e. Be responsible for the setting-up of an internal audit department and consider the appointment of internal auditor as well as an independent external auditor, the audit fee and any question of resignation or dismissal;
 - f. Monitor and evaluate the adequacy and effectiveness of the Corporation's internal control system;
 - g. Receive and review reports of internal and external auditors and regulatory agencies, where applicable and ensure that management is taking appropriate corrective actions, in timely manner in addressing control and compliance functions with regulatory agencies;
 - h. Review the quarterly, half year and annual financial statements before submission to the Board, focusing particularly on any change/s in accounting policies and practices;
 - i. Significant adjustment resulting from the audit;
 - j. Going concern assumption;
 - k. Compliance with the accounting standards; and
 - l. Compliance with tax, legal, and stock exchange requirements;

The Audit Committee shall be responsible for coordinating, monitoring and facilitating compliance with existing laws, rules and regulations. It may also constitute a Compliance Unit for this purpose, it shall:

- a. Evaluate and determine non-audit work by external auditor and keep under review the non-audit fees paid to the external auditor both in relation to their significance to the auditor and in relation to the Corporation's total expenditure on consultancy. The non-audit work should be disclosed in the annual report.
- b. Establish and identify the reporting line of the chief audit executive so that the reporting level allows the internal audit activity to fulfill its responsibilities. The chief audit executive shall report directly to the Audit Committee functionally. The Audit Committee shall ensure that the internal auditors shall have free and full access to all the Corporation's records, properties and personnel relevant to the internal audit activity and that the internal audit activity should be free from interference in determining the scope of internal auditing examinations, performing work, and communicating results, and shall provide a venue for the Audit Committee to review and approve the annual audit plan.

The Charter of the Audit Committee is hereto attached as Annex "A".

5.5 The Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee shall be composed of at least three (3) members, one of whom shall be an independent director. The Remuneration Committee is responsible for establishing the procedure for developing a policy on remuneration of directors and officers to ensure that their compensation is consistent with the corporation's culture, strategy and the business environment.

There shall be a formal and transparent procedure for developing policies on executive remuneration packages for directors and executive officers. To prevent the risk of conflict of interests, concerned directors shall not participate in deciding compensation packages involving his own.

Remuneration packages should be carefully studied to provide sufficient compensation for the services of and attract, retain and motive an able and competent roster of directors. Performance-based remuneration should be designed to complement or reward good performance while at the same time keeping in mind the interests of shareholders. Appropriate standards and measures must be laid down for purposes of assessing executive directors' performances while non-executive directors may be remunerated on the basis of the contribution considering the time and efforts spent in the services of the Company. Incentives may also be given to include stock options, whenever the resources of the Company permit.

6. THE MANAGEMENT

6.1 The President

The President shall be the head of the Company and is the strategic and operational leader directly accountable to the Board for all corporate activities. The responsibilities of the President are spread throughout almost all aspects of the business of the Company from planning, organizing, development and implementation.

The Board is responsible for identifying and electing a President as well as for approving and implementing a process of evaluation of his or her performance both on an on-going annual basis. The Board shall establish annual performance expectations and goals for the President which should be benchmark for success of projects undertaken and implemented by the President for each annual review.

6.1.1 Core Competencies

Among others, the President must have the following core competencies:

-
- a. Strategic and visionary leadership capabilities. He should be able to manage people and motivate them in performing their respective duties with integrity and proficiency. He should also be flexible and integrative with the ability to evaluate complex situations and issues concerning the goings on of the business of the Company. Most importantly, he should be able to represent Management to the Company's stakeholders / shareholders and effectively communicate to them the Company's mission and vision and how the organization is working towards achieving these goals;
 - b. Creditable professional drive. He should have an excessive appetite for success with the professional drive and commitment to the growth and success of the business, himself and people working with him and for him;
 - c. Role model qualities. The President must be a leader and role model of management and employees. He should be able to promote a culture of optimal talent, above-par aptitude, strong leadership, performance, at all levels of the business;
 - d. Superior personal and professional inter-relationships abilities. The President should be able to build sustainable relationships with people both internal and external to the Company. He should also be able to represent the Company to the business community to advance its goals and sustainability and build a network of prospective partners / allies to make the Company more globally competitive;

6.1.2 Succession Planning and Evaluation

The Nomination Committee shall periodically review the Company's succession plans for the CEO and, as needed, make recommendations to the Board regarding the selection of individuals to fill this position. There shall be an annual report to the Board by Nominating Committee on the Company's plans regarding CEO and other senior management succession planning.

An evaluation of the CEO's performance shall be made annually by the non-executive Directors based on objective and subjective criteria such as performance of the business, accomplishment of long-term strategic objectives, management development and organizational development.

6.2 The Secretary

The Secretary, who must be a Filipino citizen and a resident of the Philippines, shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- a. Be loyal to the mission, vision and objectives of the corporation;
- b. Work fairly and objectively with the Board, Management and stockholders;
- c. Have appropriate administrative and interpersonal skills;
- d. Have a working knowledge of the operations of the corporation;
- e. Ensure that all Board procedures, rules and regulations are strictly followed by the members;

-
- f. keep the minutes of the meetings of the stockholders, the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee and all the standing committees and shall compile them in book form as part of the corporate records of the Corporation;
 - g. issue all notices for all meetings required by law and by these by-laws;
 - h. have in his custody the corporate records and the seal of the Corporation and see to it that his seal is affixed on all contracts, deeds, agreements and other documents the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation is duly authorized;
 - i. keep the record of the address of each stockholders;
 - j. sign with the President or with a Vice-President stock certificates for the shares of the Corporation, the issuance of which shall have been authorized by the Board of Directors;
 - k. have general charge of the stock transfer books of the Corporation; and
 - l. perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties from time to time may be assigned to him by the President or by the Board of Directors.

6.3 The Treasurer

The Treasurer shall have the following responsibilities:

- a. keep regular books of account of the Corporation;
- b. have charge and custody of and be responsible for all the funds and securities of the Corporation;
- c. receive and give from any source whatsoever and deposit all such moneys in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors;
- d. render to the Board of Directors from time to time an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial conditions of the Corporation;
- e. perform all the duties incidental to the office of the Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the President or by the Board of Directors.

6.4 The Compliance Officer

The Board shall appoint a Compliance Officer who shall report directly to the Chair of the Board. He shall perform the following duties:

- a. Monitor compliance by the corporation with this Code and the rules and regulations of regulatory agencies and, if any violations are found, report the matter to the Board and recommend the imposition of appropriate disciplinary action on the responsible parties and the adoption of measures to prevent a repetition of the violation;
- b. Appear before the SEC when summoned in relation to compliance with its rules and procedures ; and

7. Accountability and Audit

The Board is primarily accountable to the stockholders. It should provide them with a balanced and comprehensible assessment of the corporation's performance, position and prospects on a quarterly basis, including interim and other reports that could adversely affect its business, as well as reports to regulators that are required by law.

Thus, it is essential that Management provide all members of the Board with accurate and timely information that would enable the Board to comply with its responsibilities to the stockholders.

Management should formulate, under the supervision of the Audit Committee, the rules and procedures on financial reporting and internal control in accordance with the following guidelines:

- (i) The extent of its responsibility in the preparation of the financial statements of the corporation, with the corresponding delineation of the responsibilities that pertain to the external auditor, should be clearly explained;
- (ii) An effective system of internal control that will ensure the integrity of the financial reports and protection of the assets of the corporation should be maintained;
- (iii) On the basis of the approved audit plans, internal audit examinations should cover, at the minimum, the evaluation of the adequacy and effectiveness of controls that cover the corporation's governance, operations and information systems, including the reliability and integrity of financial and operational information, effectiveness and efficiency of operations, protection of assets, and compliance with contracts, laws, rules and regulations;
- (iv) The corporation should consistently comply with the financial reporting requirements of the SEC;
- (v) The external auditor should be rotated or changed every five (5) years or earlier, or the signing partner of the external auditing firm assigned to the corporation, should be changed with the same frequency. The Internal Auditor should submit to the Audit Committee and Management an annual report on the internal audit department's activities, responsibilities and performance relative to the audit plans and strategies as approved by the Audit Committee. The annual report should include significant risk exposures, control issues and such other matters as may be needed or requested by the Board and Management. The Internal Auditor should certify that he conducts his activities in accordance with the International Standards on the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing. If he does not, he shall disclose to the Board and Management the reasons why he has not fully complied with the said standards.

The Board, after consultations with the Audit Committee, shall recommend to the stockholders an external auditor duly accredited by the Commission who shall undertake an independent audit of the corporation, and shall provide an objective assurance on the manner by which the financial statements shall be prepared and presented to the stockholders. The external auditor shall not, at the same time, provide internal audit services to the corporation. Non-audit work may be given to the external auditor, provided it does not conflict with his duties as an independent auditor, or does not pose a threat to his independence.

If the external auditor resigns, is dismissed or ceases to perform his services, the reason/s for and the date of effectivity of such action shall be reported in the corporation's annual and current reports. The report shall include a discussion of any disagreement between him and the corporation on accounting principles or practices, financial disclosures or audit procedures which the former auditor and the corporation failed to resolve satisfactorily. A preliminary copy of the said report shall be given by the corporation to the external auditor before its submission.

8. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

8.1 Policies

Possible and actual conflicts of interest between the Company and the Board and Management must be identified in all transactions and contracts entered into by the Company. In case such exists and it is determined that the contract or transaction is vital or beneficial the Company, the approval process must be in consonance with certain standards on Related Party Transactions.

“Related Party Transaction” means any financial transaction, arrangement or relationship (including any indebtedness or guarantee of indebtedness) or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships involving an aggregate amount of Five Million Pesos (P 5,000,000.00) in which the Company or any of its subsidiary was, is or is proposed to be a participant and in which a Related Party has, had or may have a direct or indirect material interest.

The Company recognizes that Related Party Transactions can present potential or actual conflicts of interest and may raise questions about whether such transactions are consistent with the Company's and its stockholders' best interests. Policies mandating the review and approval of Related Party Transactions should be adopted in order to set forth the procedures under which certain transactions must be reviewed and approved or ratified.

8.2 Related Party

“Related Party” means any (i) director, nominee for director or executive officer of the Company; (ii) beneficial owner (other than a financial or investment institution) of more than 5% of the Company's voting securities; (iii) Immediate Family Member of a director, executive officer, nominee for director or beneficial owner of more than 5% of the Company's voting securities; (iv) an entity which is owned or controlled by someone who falls within the categories listed above in (i), (ii) or (iii); or (v) an entity in which someone listed above in (i), (ii) or (iii) has a substantial ownership interest or control.

An immediate family member is any child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, spouse, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law or sister-in-law of any director, nominee for director or executive officer of the Company.

8.3 Identification of Potential Related-Party Transactions

All Related-Party Transactions must be brought to the Management's attention. On an annual basis, each of the directors and executive officers are required to complete a questionnaire designed to elicit information about any potential Related-Party Transactions.

Any potential Related-Party Transaction that is raised will be analyzed by the Company's Legal Department, in consultation with management and, whenever warranted, the Company's external auditor. The team will determine whether the transaction or relationship does, in fact, constitute a Related-Party Transaction requiring compliance with this Policy.

8.4 Review and Approval of Related Party Transactions

At each of its meetings, the Audit Committee will be provided with the details of each existing or proposed Related-Party Transaction that it has not previously approved or disapproved with the following information:

- a. the terms of the transaction;
- b. the business purpose of the transaction;
- c. benefits to the Company and to the relevant director, executive officer or employee.

In the event the Legal Department determines that it is impractical or undesirable to wait until the next Committee meeting to review a Related-Party Transaction, the Chairman of the Audit Committee may act on its behalf to review and approve the Related-Party Transaction. In determining whether to approve a Related-Party Transaction, considerations should be placed on whether the terms of the Related-Party Transaction are fair to the Company or on terms at least equally favorable as would apply if the other party was not or did not have an affiliation with a director, executive officer or employee of the Company. In addition, the following parameters must be applied in the approval of Related Party Transactions:

- There should be good demonstrable business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction;
- The Related-Party Transaction should not impair the independence of a director; and
- The Related-Party Transaction should not present an improper conflict of interests for any director, executive officer or employee of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the director, executive officer or employee, the direct or indirect nature of the interest of the director, executive officer or employee in the transaction, the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship, and any other relevant factors.

9. RISK MANAGEMENT

The Board and its subsidiaries recognize the importance of identifying and controlling various risks to prevent undue or uncalculated negative impact on the Company. The Board also recognizes that risk oversight, implementation of comprehensive controls and assurance processes are a core function of the Board.

This policy outlines the Board's desire to better manage risks of the Company, with the formation of a control framework to assist in identifying, assessing, monitoring and managing risks, so as to safeguard the assets and interests of the Company while ensuring the integrity of reporting.

9.1 Benefits

Listed below are some of the benefits of establishing, implementing and maintaining risk management procedures:

- (i) More effective strategic and business planning;
- (ii) More effective utilization of resources;
- (iii) Better cost control;
- (iv) Enhances shareholder value by minimizing losses and maximizing opportunities;
- (v) Increases knowledge and understanding of exposure to risks;
- (vi) Increases preparedness for third-party/ outside review, more effective and less costly audits;
- (vii) Minimizes business disruptions; and
- (viii) Strengthens culture for continued improvement.

9.2 The Risk Management Committee

A Risk Management Committee is an integral part of the Company's Structure. The Committee ensures that the Board, directors, and the management are aware of all actual and potential risks, both internal and external, facing the business and that a system to identify, monitor and assess risk is implemented and effective. The Risk Management Committee shall be composed of three (3) directors, the Chairman of which shall be an Independent Director.

The Risk Management Committee shall be guided by the following:

- a. Quarterly review of the Company's business must be done for risk identification, mitigation and monitoring;
- b. There should be consistency and best practices rules in the managing, monitoring and reporting of risks;

-
- c. Some risks may be beneficial to the Company if properly managed and controlled;
 - d. Risk-taking should be an informed process within a pre-determined range;

9.3 Duties of the Risk Management Officer:

As may be determined to be necessary by and directly reporting to the Risk Management Committee, there shall be a Risk Management Officer whose primary duty shall be as follows:

- i. Develop and advise the Board and the Management on the level of risk that is acceptable to the Company, including the acceptance of risk at levels that have been designed to accomplish strategic plans;
- ii. Develop risk mitigation activities that when implemented will reduce or otherwise manage risk at levels that have been determined to be reasonable. Examples of which include, risk minimization procedures, cost effective insurance or other risk shifting activities;
- iii. Identify and prioritize risks existing and that are material to the Company;
- iv. Undertake the monitoring of business activities to periodically reassess risks and the effectiveness of controls to manage such risks and;
- v. Supply the Risk Management Committee with quarterly reports on the risk management process.

In the event that a separate Risk Management Officer has not been appointed/ designated, the CEO shall fulfil said role in accordance with this policy.

9.4 Risk Profile

The risk profile of the Company contains both financial and non-financial factors, internal and external factors, including material risks arising from operational activities, operational efficiency and investments in new projects.

The Board recognizes that the Company's main business risks are determined by the nature of its business activities and are aware that there are other factors that could influence the risk profile of the Company.

9.5 Risk Management Program

The Risk Management Committee shall operationalize a Risk Management Program which shall be guided by the following:

- 1. Establish risk profile and determine external and internal factors which can influence the Company's risk profile;
- 2. Identify and characterize specific threats/ risks;
- 3. Assess the vulnerability of critical assets to specific threats/ risks;

-
4. Determine the risks (i.e. expected likelihood and consequences of specific threats/ risks on specific assets;
 5. Identify ways on how to minimize said threats/ risks;
 6. Prioritize risk reduction measures based on strategy;
 7. Implement and monitor
 8. Assess effectiveness, conduct reviews and evaluation and make necessary adjustments

9.6 Guidelines for minimizing operational risks

The Company strives to manage risks as best as it can possibly can and has introduced the following guidelines to minimize operational risks, by ensuring that;

1. all employees be made aware of their duties, roles & responsibilities and they must be held accountable for their specific duties, roles & responsibilities;
2. the Company shall assign authority based on skill and experience;
3. all agreements are recorded and documents safeguarded to substantiate dealings with external parties;
4. the Company has in place insurance policies to minimize risk of loss through accidents or other adverse incidents;
5. the Board receives on a regular basis, reports of its operational activities;
6. have health and safety practices in place for its employees.

9.7 Guidelines for minimizing external risks

The Board is aware that external risks are beyond the control of the Company and it the Company is exposed to potential financial loss because of these. To minimize these external risks, the following guidelines have been initiated:

1. Receiving regular reports on the market relating to prices, interest rates, foreign exchange and economic news;
2. Constant monitoring of the supply and demand situation of the company's main product;
3. Access to expert advice or research/ studies on the direction of the prices of the Company's product(s).

9.8 Annual Review

The Risk Management Program shall be reviewed annually and all material changes to the Company's risk profile shall be noted. To assist the Risk Management Committee in conducting the annual review, management and key executives are required to report to the Committee on:

-
- (ix) any material risks identified;
 - (x) how the risks are being managed;
 - (xi) the implementation of any risk management or internal control system; and
 - (xii) whether any breaches of the risk management policies have occurred during the period.

10. INTERNAL CONTROLS

The control environment of the corporation consists of (a) the Board which ensures that the corporation is properly and effectively managed and supervised; (b) a Management that actively manages and operates the corporation in a sound and prudent manner; (c) the organizational and procedural controls supported by effective management information and risk management reporting systems; and (d) an independent audit mechanism to monitor the adequacy and effectiveness of the corporation's governance, operations, and information systems, including the reliability and integrity of financial and operational information, the effectiveness and efficiency of operations, the safeguarding of assets, and compliance with laws, rules, regulations and contracts.

Internal control aims to ensure that the Company's business activities are efficient and proficient, financial reporting is reliable and that applicable laws, regulations and company's internal policies are followed.

The Company shall implement an effective internal control system, based on following guidelines:

1. Structuring rules and principles shall be applicable to the Company and its Subsidiaries to standardize methodologies and processes;
2. Internal control standards shall be defined and explained with clarity in simple language as to be understood both by Management and personnel.
3. There should be a list of mandatory key controls designed to cover the main risks pertaining to processes impacting financial information, protection of assets, detection and prevention of fraud.

The internal control system shall include control objectives and common control points for financial reporting as well as roles and responsibilities in executing and monitoring internal control in the Company.

10.1 Implementation

Implementation of the Internal Controls shall be a joint effort by and among the Board, various standing committees, particularly the Audit Committee, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Finance Officer.

The Company's internal controls and systems must be implemented to provide reasonable, and not absolute, assurance on the integrity and reliability of the financial statements. Measures must also be in place to safeguard, verify and maintain accountability of its assets and to detect fraud, potential liability, loss and material misstatement.

The board shall review the effectiveness of controls on an annual basis through a process of management self-assessment. Consideration must be given to information and report from the Audit Committee and external auditor.

10.2 Internal Control Manual

The Company shall prepare and implement an Internal Control Manual which shall be duly approved by the Board and the standing Committees.

11. INTERNAL AUDIT

Internal Auditing is an independent, objective assurance and consulting activity designed to add value and improve an organization's operations. It helps an organization accomplish its objectives by bringing a systematic, disciplined approach to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of risk management, control, and governance processes. Internal auditing is a catalyst for improving an organization's governance, risk management and management controls by providing insight and recommendations based on analyses and assessments of data and business processes. With commitment to integrity and accountability, internal auditing provides value to governing bodies and senior management as an objective source of independent advice.

The Internal Auditor will be responsible for the execution of company activities advising management and the Board regarding ways and means to better execute their functions and responsibilities. The Internal Auditor to be appointed maybe on employment or consultancy basis, depending on the needs and requirements of the Company and its on-going businesses.

Internal Auditing requires various functions related to the evaluation of the effectiveness the Company's risk management, internal controls and governance. Internal Audit helps ensure:

- a. Risks are appropriately identified and managed;
- b. Significant financial, managerial, and operating information is accurate, reliable, and timely;
- c. Resources are used efficiently and adequately safeguarded.
- d. Operations are transacted in accordance with sufficient internal controls, good business judgment, and high ethical standards;
- e. Quality and continuous improvement are fostered in the Company's internal control processes.

11.1 The Director for Internal Audit

The Board will appoint a Director for Internal Audit and Tax Compliance charged with the following duties:

- a. Develop, document, implement, test, and maintain a comprehensive internal audit plan and system of internal controls to help provide assurance that applicable laws, regulations, and policies and procedures are complied with judiciously;
- b. Examine financial transactions for accuracy and compliance with institutional policies and applicable laws and regulations;

-
- c. Evaluate financial and operational procedures to assure adequate internal controls are present;
 - d. Identify, assess, and evaluate risk areas; make appropriate recommendations for improved internal controls and accounting procedures; and research and adopt industry best practices where appropriate;
 - e. Direct research and strategic planning efforts related to tax issues;
 - f. Advise senior management on policy and procedure developments with respect to tax issues;

11.2 Annual Internal Audit Plan

Based on a risk assessment of the Company, the Director for Internal Audit, Internal Auditor, management and the Board shall determine where to focus internal auditing efforts on an annual basis. An audit plan will be proposed by the Audit Committee for approval by the Board. The plan shall cover, among others, the following:

- a. Establish and communicate the scope and objectives for the audit to appropriate management;
- b. Develop an understanding of the business area under review. This includes objectives, measurements, and key transaction types. This involves review of documents and interviews. Flowcharts and narratives may be created if necessary.
- c. Describe the key risks facing the business activities within the scope of the audit.
- d. Identify management practices in the five components of control used to ensure each key risk is properly controlled and monitored.
- e. Develop and execute a risk-based sampling and testing approach to determine whether the most important management controls are operating as intended.
- f. Report issues and challenges identified and negotiate action plans with management to address the problems.
- g. Follow-up on reported findings at appropriate intervals. Internal audit departments maintain a follow-up database for this purpose.

11.3 Internal audit reports

The Internal Auditor will prepare their reports at the end of each audit that summarize their findings, recommendations, and any responses or action plans from management. Recommendations in an internal audit report should help the Company achieve effective and efficient governance, risk and control processes associated with operations objectives, financial and management reporting objectives; and legal/regulatory compliance objectives.

Audit findings and recommendations may also relate to particular assertions about transactions, such as whether the transactions audited were valid or authorized, completely processed, accurately valued, processed in the correct time period, and properly disclosed in financial or operational reporting, among other elements.

ASIABEST GROUP INTERNATIONAL INC.

CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

1.1 General

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code") outlines the ethical principles that should guide all employees of AsiaBest Group International Inc. and subsidiaries (collectively, "The Company") in their daily work. For the purpose of this Code, any reference to "employees" includes any director, officer or employee of the Company.

The Code is not meant to be a complete list of all legal and ethical obligations of the employees of the Company. This Code is aimed at providing the framework and rules to be implemented and followed for the orderly and successful conduct of the Company's business. Specific instances requiring the application of the rules in cases of questions breach or transgression should be properly addressed by Management with due respect and subject to the provisions of the Code.

It is the responsibility of each employee to become familiar with the principles set out in this Code and to integrate them into every aspect of the Company's business.

1.2 Administration of the Code

Management, in coordination with the Board of directors through the Governance Committee, is responsible for monitoring compliance with the Code. Regular assessments on the Code's adequacy, sufficiency and applicability shall be conducted on an annual basis.

In addition to the Code, the Company will also set in place, a Director's Manual and Employee's Handbook which will govern the human resources aspects of the employee's conduct as well as provide for the specific disciplinary actions and procedures for such.

1.3 Outline of Policy

The Company is committed to ethical and fair business dealings, and promotes a corporate culture which is non-sectarian and non-political and which is 'socially and environmentally responsible. It does this by subscribing to the following values and principles:

1. Fairness and integrity in all business dealings, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships;
2. Having respect for human rights and the dignity of all employees;
3. Accepting diverse cultures, religions, race, gender and sexual orientation;
4. Honesty, transparency and accountability; and
5. Adherence to sound standards of corporate Audit and applicable laws.

Employees, officers and directors alike should adhere to and be bound by these policies and uphold the following standards

-
1. Representation beyond reproach and accountability;
 2. Dealing with integrity with fellow officers, directors, or employees, suppliers, customers, shareholders and other stakeholders;
 3. Obedience to applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations and freedom from any badge of fraud or criminal acts;
 4. Avoidance of conflicts of interest and declaring them when they arise;
 5. Observance of confidentiality rules;

2. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS, RULES AND REGULATIONS

Employees are expected to maintain compliance with the letter and spirit of all laws governing the jurisdictions in which they perform their duties. This Code does not purport to address all areas of law that employees might encounter in the day-to-day business of the Company. However, emphasis must be given to the following areas of law which are of primary importance in the conduct of the Company's business:

2.1 Human Rights Laws:

The Company values the diversity of its employees, customers and suppliers and is committed to providing equal treatment in all aspects of the business. Abusive, harassing or offensive conduct is unacceptable, whether verbal, physical, visual or otherwise. The Company will not tolerate any conduct that is discriminatory or harassing or which otherwise compromises an individual's human rights.

2.2 Privacy Laws:

The Company is committed to maintaining the accuracy, confidentiality, security and privacy of the personal information of its customers, suppliers and employees. Employees who have access to personal information are expected to support the Company's efforts to develop, implement and maintain procedures and policies designed to manage personal information.

2.3 Health and Safety Laws:

The Company complies with all applicable health and safety laws and regulations as part of its commitment to providing its employees with a safe and healthy work environment. In this regard, employees are expected to work in a safe manner with due regard for their personal safety as well as that of their co-workers.

2.4 Environmental Laws:

Cognizant of its responsibility to the environment, the Company strives to conform to all applicable environmental laws and regulations and to promote the respect of the environment in its activities. Employees are expected to support the Company's efforts to develop, implement and maintain procedures and programs designed to protect and preserve the environment.

2.5 Securities Laws:

The Company is committed to protecting security holder investments and expects all employees to comply with the applicable reporting obligations and trading restrictions imposed by the Company, the Securities and Exchange Commission or the Philippine Stock Exchange. Employees who are in possession of material information about the Company must not trade in securities of the Company until such information is generally and publicly available. Providing inside information to others who then trade on it is also strictly prohibited. Employees should make themselves familiar with the Corporation's Trading and Disclosure Policies.

2.6 Competition Laws:

Competition laws are enacted to limit practices that are seen to impair the function of a free and open marketplace. A complete description of these laws is beyond the scope of this Code, however, they include: price fixing, bid rigging, price discrimination, allocation of markets and boycotting of certain suppliers or customers. Employees having regular dealings with customers and suppliers should become familiar with the laws applying to these practices, as non-compliance will be dealt with in the Director's Manual and Employee's Handbook.

2.7 Employment and Labor Laws:

The Company's most important resource is its employees. It is the Company's policy to comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including those concerning hours of work, compensation, opportunity, human rights and working conditions. These principles, as well as compliance thereto, implementation and application shall be entrenched in the Director's Manual and Employees' Handbook of the Company.

3. FAIR DEALING

The Company believes in dealing fairly with its competition and other stakeholders. The Company requires its employees to avoid taking unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any unfair dealing practice.

4. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

4.1 General

Employees have a duty of loyalty to the Company and are therefore expected to always act in the Company's best interests. A conflict arises when the personal interests or activities of an employee influence or have the potential to influence the exercise of his or her judgment in the performance of his or her duties. Conflicts of interest and even the appearance of a conflict of interest may compromise the Company's reputation and must be avoided.

Nevertheless, the Company also respects its employees' right to privacy in their personal activities and financial affairs. It is the responsibility of each employee to ensure that his or her personal conduct complies with the following principles and make the proper disclosures, whenever applicable, to allow the Company to determine and address conflicts of interests issues.

4.1.1 Employment or Affiliation with a Competitor, Supplier or Customer

Employees may not act as directors, officers, employees, consultants or agents of entities that are competitors, suppliers or customers of the Company. In addition, employees may not own, directly or indirectly, a beneficial interest in any of these entities unless an employee is making an investment in securities that are listed on a national or international securities exchange and the total value of the investment is less than 2% of the value of the class of securities involved.

4.1.2 Independent Business Ventures

Employees may not engage in independent business ventures or agree to perform services for other businesses if the activity interferes with an employee's devotion of time and effort to the conduct of the Company's business or otherwise affects his or her ability to work effectively. Proper disclosures should be made to enable the Company to determine and address conflict of interest issues.

4.1.3 Personal Benefits, Gifts, Bribes and Kickbacks

Employees may not use their position as an employee of the Company to derive or secure any personal, financial or other benefit for themselves or their relatives. An employee may not solicit and/or accept any gift or favor from any competitor, supplier or customer except to the extent customary and reasonable in amount and not in consideration for any improper action by the recipient. Finally, the offering or accepting of bribes, payoffs or kickbacks made directly or indirectly to obtain an advantage in a commercial transaction is strictly prohibited.

4.1.4 Reporting Conflict

Employees are expected to report to the Company any personal interests which conflict or may conflict with the interests of the Company. This prohibition applies to the immediate family's members and other members of the Employee's household. For the avoidance of doubt, activities which are likely to fall under the prohibitions must be reported to the Company for a determination of whether or not conflict of interest indeed exists.

5. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

5.1 General

During the normal course of business, employees may have access to non-public information regarding the Company's customers, suppliers, operations, strategic plans, financial affairs, employees and trade secrets, among other things. These information are key corporate assets and every employee has an obligation to protect them and keep them in the strictest confidence, until disclosure is authorized or actually effected.

6. GIFTS AND BUSINESS COURTESIES

6.1 General

Gifts and business courtesies offered or given by reason of, or in connection with, an Employee's position or employment in the Company should be avoided. Employees are not permitted to give or accept, directly or indirectly:

- a. gifts and business courtesies that might create the appearance of an impropriety. This ruling extends to your immediate family members including spouses;
- b. With exception of gifts acceptable by customary practice, cash payments, discounts or vouchers, regardless of value, must not be accepted from current or potential customers, suppliers, vendors or other contractors;

In case of doubt, Employees should seek the advice and / or approval of Management. The decision will depend on factors such as the nature and monetary value of the gift, entertainment or courtesy, and the frequency with which such offers have been accepted or used.

The responsibility rests with the employee to ensure that the actual monetary value of the gift, entertainment or courtesy does not exceed the allowable monetary value or the value for which permission has been granted.

7. POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Employees have the freedom to engage in legitimate political activities. However, the Company espouses an apolitical stand in the conduct of its business and shall not make any political contributions for purposes of influencing an award or retention in favour of the Company and its business.

8. USE OF COMPANY SERVICES AND PROPERTY

8.1 General

Employees, officers and directors owe a duty to the Company to advance its legitimate interests. Except as otherwise permitted in this Code, employees, officers and directors, may not take for themselves opportunities that are discovered through the use of the Company's resources, information or position; use the Company's property, information, or position for personal purposes; nor compete with the Company either directly or indirectly.

8.2 Protection And Proper Use Of Corporate Assets

All employees of the Company should endeavour to protect its assets and resources and ensure legitimate use. These assets and resources include information, equipment, office supplies, hardware, software, intellectual property and time. Such assets may not be used for personal benefit, nor may they be sold, borrowed or given away without proper authorization. Occasional and limited personal use of certain corporate resources (e.g. computer, fax, e-mail) is acceptable where the Company's interests are not adversely affected.

Employees' messages (including voice mail) and computer information are considered corporate property. Unless prohibited by law, the Company reserves the right to access and disclose this information as necessary for business purposes or as a result of an investigation for probable breach of this Code.

9. BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS

Employees involved, whether directly or indirectly, in dealing with third parties for and on behalf of the Company shall ensure that business and commercial transactions are carried at arm's length with due benefit for the Company. The following are guiding principles in the conduct of transactions involving the Company:

1. Purchase contracts and tender awards must be made on the basis of quality, service, price and availability, within the parameters of and any applicable laws;
2. All approved suppliers must be of good standing and selected from a sufficient number of qualified suppliers for comparative purposes;
3. Confidential information about the Company may not be revealed to a supplier, vendor or potential supplier or vendor without the prior authorization of Management;
4. Any director, officer or employee who is removed from an office of trust on account of misconduct, or has been or is at any time in the future, convicted of theft, fraud, forgery or an offense involving dishonesty, must disclose this fact to Management;

-
5. All monies, cheques, documents and other properties of the Company must be properly and accurately accounted for.

10. SHARE DEALINGS

10.1 Principles

The shares of the Company are listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange. As such, share ownerships, to the extent that they are covered or restricted by applicable laws must be subject to the following rules:

1. Any dealings in shares or securities of the Company must be beyond reproach and in accordance with all applicable laws.
2. It is a criminal offence to deal in or to encourage or discourage anyone else to deal in securities on the basis of information gained as an insider prior to disclosure.
3. Officers and directors of the Company must heed closed periods for dealing in the Company's shares. These closed periods will be made known from time to time and are to be considered binding.
4. All directors and officers must report details of their dealings in the Company's shares in writing to the Company Secretary by no later than close of business on the day immediately following the transaction. This includes dealings by his/her spouse and minor children or by trusts or entities in which they or any of them may have controlling interest.

11. IMPLEMENTATION AND MONITORING

11.1 Commitment

Directors, officers, and employees of the Company commit to comply with both the letter and spirit of this Code and the Company endeavors to obtain the same commitment from its business partners. In this connection, directors and officers should explain to employees and business partners the Company's principles and values set forth in this Code, and emphasize the importance of conducting themselves in accordance with the standards set by this Code in order to attain financial rewards for the Company and to deter wrongdoing.

11.2 Waiver

There shall be no waiver of any of the provisions of this Code in favor of any directors, officer, or employee, except when expressly granted by the Board of Directors. Any such waiver for any director or executive officer or any material amendment to the Code must be promptly disclosed to the shareholders of the Company.

11.3 Reporting Known or Suspected Violations

The Board and its directors, the CEO, senior financial officers and chief legal officer shall promptly report any known or suspected violations of this Code to the Chairman of the Governance Committee. All other employees should communicate any such or relevant information to Management. Employees may also report questionable behaviour in the same manner as they may report complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters to the Company's auditors. No retaliatory action of any kind will be permitted against anyone making such a report in good faith, and the Governance Committee will strictly enforce this prohibition.

11.4 Accountability for Violations

If the Governance Committee determines that this Code has been violated, either directly, or by failure to report a violation, or by withholding information related to a violation, the offending Employee may be disciplined for non-compliance with penalties up to and including removal from office or dismissal. Such penalties may include written notices to the individual involved that a violation has been determined, censure, demotion or re-assignment, suspension with or without pay or benefits or all or combination of the foregoing. Violations of this Code may also constitute violations of law and may result in criminal penalties and civil liabilities for the Employee.

11.5 Review and Amendments

All policies, systems practice, orders, and similar official corporate issuances, whether existing or to be issued shall be revisited and revised as soon as practicable in order to be consistent with the letter and spirit of this Code. Pending the finalization of such amendments, the provisions of this Code shall prevail over any policies, systems practice, orders, and similar official corporate issuances, inconsistent with this Code. This Code shall be reviewed at least once every two (2) years or such other frequency as may be determined by the Board of Directors and/or the Governance Committee.

ASIABEST GROUP INTERNATIONAL INC.
AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

This Audit Committee Charter (“this Charter”) sets out the purpose, membership and qualifications, structure operations, reporting process, resources and other duties and responsibilities of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of AsiaBest Group International Inc. (the “Company”).

Section 1. Basis and Purpose

Pursuant to the Company’s By-laws and the Revised Code of Corporate Governance, an Audit Committee was created to provide for the composition, powers and duties thereof. Among others, the Audit Committee is tasked to:

- Assist the Board of Directors in performing oversight responsibility for the financial reporting processes;
- Supervise management activities and responsibilities in maintaining a sound system of internal control;
- Monitor and evaluate the adequacy and effectiveness of the corporation’s internal control system;
- Coordinate, monitor and facilitate compliance with laws, rules and regulations in financial reporting;
- Review reports and financial statements before their submission to the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Membership

- 2.1 Composition. The Committee shall be composed of at least three (3) members of the Board, who shall preferably have accounting and finance backgrounds, one of whom shall be an independent director and another with audit experience. The Chairman of the Committee shall be an Independent Director.
- 2.2 Qualification. Each member of the Committee shall have the qualifications and none of the disqualifications of a Director, as provided under the By-laws and other relevant laws and regulations. The Chairman shall be responsible for inculcating in the minds of the members of the Board of Directors the importance of management responsibilities in maintaining a sound system of internal control in accounting and record keeping as well as a sound system of controls over the preparations and reporting of the Company’s financial statements and other reports.
- 2.3 Appointment. The Chairman and the members of the Committee are appointed by a majority vote of the members of the Board constituting a quorum either during the Organizational Board Meeting of the Company or, if there is a vacancy, during any meeting of the Board constituting a quorum.
- 2.4 Removal. The Chairman and members of the Committee may be removed from the Committee by a majority vote of the Board.
- 2.5 Secretary of the Meeting. The Company’s Corporate Secretary shall be the secretary of the Committee.

Section 3. Structure and Operations

- 3.1 Meetings. The Committee shall meet at such times and places as it considers appropriate, every quarter to discuss and approve the issuance of the Company's financial statements for the relevant periods. The Chairman of the Committee, any Committee member, or the Corporate Secretary of the Company may call a meeting of the Committee at any time for any matters that need to be addressed, discussed, and / or resolved by the Audit Committee.
- 3.2 Quorum. Attendance of at least two (2) Committee members shall constitute a quorum for the Committee to transact business. The Committee shall act only on the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the members present in a meeting at which there is a quorum.
- 3.3 Chairman. The Chairman of the Committee shall preside in all meetings of the Committee. In the absence of the Committee Chairman, the Committee members present shall elect one of their members as Chairman of the meeting.
- 3.4 Notice of Meeting. A notice of each meeting confirming the date, time, venue, and agenda shall be given to each member of the Committee at least two (2) working days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice will include the agenda to be discussed during the meeting.
- 3.5 Record of Meetings. Full minutes of the proceedings of, and resolutions made during, Committee meetings, shall be kept by the Corporate Secretary. Draft minutes shall be sent to the Committee members for their comment.
- 3.7 Remuneration. No fees or other remuneration shall be payable to the members and advisors of the Committee for services provided or attendance to Committee meetings, except fees or remuneration authorized and approved by the board.

Section 4. Duties and Responsibilities

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee are as follows:

4.1. Financial Reporting and Disclosures

The Audit Committee shall be responsible for the preparation, review and approval and issuance of the Company's financial statements and reports. Among others, the Audit Committee shall:

- a. Review and approve audit scope and frequency and the annual internal audit plan;
- b. Provide oversight over the senior management's activities in managing credit, market liquidity, operational, legal and other risks of the Company. The function shall include receiving from senior management periodic information on risk exposures and risk management activities.

- c. Review the quarterly, half year and annual financial statements before submission to the Board, focusing particularly on any change/s in accounting policies and practices;
- d. Determine and evaluate significant adjustment resulting from audit and going concern assumptions
- e. Ensure compliance with accounting standards and compliance with tax, legal, and stock exchange requirements
- f. Be responsible for coordinating, monitoring and facilitating compliance with existing laws, rules and regulations. It may also constitute a Compliance Unit for this purpose.
- g. Assist the Board in the performance of its oversight responsibility for the financial reporting process, system of internal control, audit process, and monitoring of compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations;
- h. Review and discuss with management and external auditor the quarterly, half-year and annual financial statements before their submission to the Board, with particular focus on the following:
 - Any change/s in accounting policies and practices;
 - Major judgmental areas;
 - Significant adjustments resulting from the audit;
 - Going concern assumptions;
 - Compliance with accounting standards;
 - Compliance with tax, legal and regulatory requirements;
- i. Review other relevant reports or financial information submitted by the company to any governmental body or the public or financial report and relevant reports rendered by the external auditor.
- j. Elevate to international standards the accounting and auditing processes, practices and methodologies of the Corporation; and
- k. Check all financial reports against its compliance with pertinent accounting standards, including laws and regulatory requirements and review the management representation letter to the external auditor.

4.2. External Auditors:

The Audit Committee shall have overall responsibility over the external audit of the Company from the selection process to the approval for issuance of financial statements for the statutory periods. Among others, the Audit Committee shall be responsible for the following:

- a. Recommend to the board of directors the selection of the external auditors among qualified and reputable audit firms, considering independence, effectiveness and professionalism.

- b. Review the external auditors' proposed audit scope and approach, including coordination of audit effort with internal audit.
- c. Discuss with the external auditor before the audit commences the nature and scope of the audit and ensure coordination where more than one audit firm is involved;
- d. Review the performance of the external auditors, and exercise final approval on the appointment or discharge of the auditors. In performing this review, the committee will:
 - 1) At least annually, obtain and review a report by the independent auditor describing: the firm's internal quality-control procedures; any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or per review of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues; and (to assess the auditor's independence) all relationships between the independent auditor and the company.
 - 2) Review and evaluate the lead partner of the independent auditor.
 - 3) Present its conclusions with respect to the external auditor to the Board.
- e. Ensure the rotation of the lead audit partner every five years and other audit partners, and consider whether there should be regular rotation of the audit firm itself.
- f. Periodically consult with the external auditors out of the presence of management about internal controls and fullness and accuracy of the company's financial statements.
- g. On a regular basis, meet separately with the external auditors to discuss any matters that the committee or auditors believe should be discussed privately.
- h. Receive and review reports of external auditors and regulatory agencies, where applicable and ensure that management is taking appropriate corrective actions, in timely manner in addressing control and compliance functions with regulatory agencies.
- i. Pre-approve the engagement of the external auditor or other independent accountant to conduct any non-audit services to be performed during the year.
- j. Evaluate and determine non-audit work by external auditor and keep under review the non-audit fees paid to external auditor both in relation to their significance to the auditor and in relation to the Company's total expenditure on consultancy. The non-audit work should be disclosed in the Annual Report

4.3 Internal Audit:

The Audit Committee shall exercise direct management and supervision over the internal audit department of the Company. In order to keep the financial reporting process sound, accurate, and compliant with financial reporting standards, the Audit Committee shall:

- a. Be responsible for setting up an internal audit department and consider the appointment of internal auditor and any questions of resignation or dismissal.
- b. Review with management and the audit executive the charter, plans, activities, staffing, and organizational structure of the internal audit function.
- c. Establish and identify the reporting line to the chief audit executive so that the reporting level allows the internal auditor activity to fulfill its responsibilities. The chief audit executive shall report directly to the Audit Committee functionally. The Audit Committee shall ensure that the internal auditors shall have free and full access to the corporation's records, properties and personnel relevant to the internal audit activity and the internal audit activity should be free from interference in determining the scope of internal audit examination, performing work, and communicating results, and shall provide a venue for the Audit Committee to review and approve the annual audit plan.
- d. Receive and review reports of internal auditors and regulatory agencies, where applicable and ensure that management is taking appropriate corrective actions, in timely manner in addressing control and compliance functions with regulatory agencies;
- e. Review the significant issues raised in internal audit reports to management and management's responses and ensure appropriate corrective actions are undertaken.
- f. Require the internal auditor to render to the committee an annual report on the activities and performance of the internal audit organization relative to the audit plan approved by the committee, including significant risk exposures and control issues, corporate governance issues, and other matters requested by the committee.
- g. Evaluate relationship that senior management, financial management, external and internal auditors have to ensure accurate and timely financial reporting and resolve any disagreement between management and the internal auditors regarding financial reporting.

4.4 Internal Control

- a. Monitor and evaluate the adequacy and effectiveness of the corporation's internal control system, including financial reporting control and information technology security.
- b. Develop a transparent financial management system that will ensure the integrity of internal control activities throughout the company.
- c. In consultation with the external auditor and the internal audit function, review the integrity of the company's financial reporting processes (both internal and external).

4.5 Legal, Regulatory and Ethical Standards Compliance:

- a. Review the effectiveness of the system for monitoring compliance with laws and regulations and covering the conducts of its operations and business activities.
- b. Review the findings of any examinations by regulatory agencies, and any auditor's observations.
- c. Review and oversee related party transactions and other potential conflicts of interest situations where appropriate considering that the company is a public firm subject to regulatory scrutiny and public perception
- d. Review the process for communicating the code of conduct to company personnel, and for monitoring compliance therewith.
- e. Evaluate and monitor compliance with the Code of Ethics for management.
- f. Obtain regular updates from management and company legal counsel regarding compliance matters.

4.6 Risk Management

Provide oversight over Management's activities in managing credit, market, liquidity, operational, legal and other risks of the Company. This function shall include regular receipt from Management of information on risk exposures and risk management activities.

4.7 Reporting Process

The Chairman of the Committee, or in his absence, the Chairman of the meeting, shall report to the Board on the decisions and recommendations made by the Committee following each meeting.

Section 5. Performance Evaluation

- 5.1 The Committee shall assess its effectiveness periodically, with a view to ensuring that its performance accords with best practice. Such assessment must compare its performance with the requirements of this Charter, which shall be the basis of its formulation of objectives and plans to improve its performance, including any recommendations for amendments to this Charter for approval by the Board.
- 5.2 The Committee shall assess its performance through a self-assessment worksheet (the "Assessment") that substantially adopts the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Guidelines for the Assessment of the Performance of Audit Committees of Companies Listed on the Exchange.
- 5.3 The Assessment shall be accomplished by the Committee on an annual basis or in such shorter intervals as may be set by the Board. The results of the Assessment shall be validated by the Company's Compliance Officer.

- 5.4 A feedback mechanism shall be in place to receive comments from management, the internal audit function, the general counsel and external auditor. This should facilitate dialogue within the organization about possible ways to improve its performance.
- 5.5 The entire assessment process shall be documented and shall form part of the records of the Company that may be examined by the SEC from time to time.
- 5.6 This Charter shall be reviewed annually, updated as required, and shall be made available to any requesting party upon written request to the Corporate Secretary.

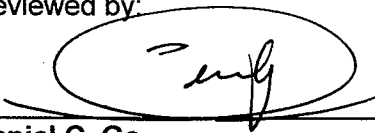

Section 6. Resources

The Committee shall have full access to management, personnel and records for the purpose of performance of its duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Committee may also obtain external legal counsel or independent professional advice if it considers it necessary in the performance of its functions. The Committee shall be provided with sufficient resources by the Company to discharge its duties, including provision for attendance in seminars and educational trainings to expand and update the knowledge of the Committee members on relevant matters.

Section 7. Amendment

This Charter shall not be amended, altered or varied unless such amendment, alteration or variation shall have been approved by a resolution of the Board.

Reviewed by:

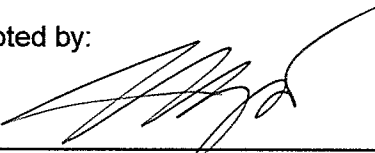

Daniel C. Go
Chairman, Audit Committee

Approved By:

Antonio Victoriano F. Gregorio III
Chairman of the Board of Directors

Noted by:

Venus L. Gregorio
Compliance Officer